I spoke with Mike Zovath in May of 2004. I asked Mike regarding unflattering statements about Ken Ham and AiG that Pete DeRosa with his family nodding in agreement to all that he said had made to us and our Pastor in December 2003. Mike answered our questions regarding those issues, restoring Ken Ham and AiG's reputation in our eyes.

In response to our questions Mr. Zovath stated that he had walked away from the Forbes lease option due to Pete DeRosas' duplicity. When I asked him why they had dropped the Forbes lease option he replied that he was dismayed to see Doug Phillips catalog advertising a tour on the land that he had just signed a lease agreement on. In answer to these questions Mike said Pete's duplicity and confusing maneuvers made him too uncomfortable with the project.

It came out that Mike Zovath also had issues about the Allosaur land ownership. There were other important matters discussed and cleared up.

Mike Zovath was very cordial, professional and helpful to me and my wife in understanding these matters.
